Charter #1846

NEWSLETTER OCTOBER 2009

LATE NEWS: Monday October 12, 2009

Harold Belk passed away peacefully in his sleep this morning.

Jay Culp's mother had a heart attack and passed away this morning at the Salisbury hospital.

The September campout was held at Dan Nicholas Park in Salisbury. Those camping were the Barringers, Bentleys, Bonds, J. Culp, Harkeys, Hoke, Lamberts, Rimer, Shoulders & Tuckers. Guests were Rick & Teresa & Matthews, Jim & Mary Rhyne, Tommy & Reba Smith, Joe & Dot Thomas. Erica brought the children up Saturday.

The November campout will be at Kings Mountain State Park. Need volunteers to help cook and chop the bar-b-que. The following have volunteered to bring:

Chopping Block ----- Jerry Hoke & Jerry Lambert

Clever ----- Jackie Tucker

Slaw ----- Dee Allman

Baked Beans -- ?????

Potato Chips --- Betsy Culp

Ice --- Jay Culp

Plates --- Eirca Gibson

Dessert --- Ann Barringer

Ask Ted Bentley how long it takes to drive from Dan Nicholas to the hospital in Concord in an emergency with Barbara.

REPORT FROM SICK BAY:

Netty Harkey went camping so she must be better.

Ray Cauthen still recovering from knee replacement.

Ran into Mickey Simpson visiting his brother in Brian Center and he appeared normal (?).
