

CAROLINA CARDINALS

Charter #1846

JUNE 2010 NEWSLETTER

CLUB NEWS:

The Carolina Cardinals April Campout was held at Deer Creek RV Resort near Galax, VA. Host for the weekend was the Lamberts. Camping were the Bonds, Harkeys, Humpherys, Lamberts, Rimer, Shoulders and Tuckers. Guests were Bobby & Sue Harkey, Rick & Teresa Matthews, Jim & Mary Rhyne, Joe & Dot Thomas and Henry & Carol Walton. Flint, our photographer, took the week off, so we do not have photos.

Friday night some of the campers attended the Blue Grass Show at the Rex Theater in downtown Galax. The Carolina Cardinals were recognized from the stage as a camping club from Deer Creek RV Resort.

Saturday was homemade ice cream time. The rest of the day was spent playing golf, hiking, bike riding, cards, and just sitting around. We had many meals at the restaurant on top of the hill.

REPORT FROM SICK BAY & PRAYER LIST:

Erica Gibson is back home after a long stay in the hospital. She hopes to return to work the last of June. Joan Simpson is back home recovering from surgery. She will start her radiation treatment 2nd week in June. Betty Harkey is recovering from foot surgery. Saw her in church today and she is still wearing the foot boot. Mollie Stirewalt will have her 2nd back surgery June 1st to remove bone fragments pressing on two nerves. Ted Bentley will have cortisone shots June 3rd for his leg problems. What would the Concord doctors do for a living without the Carolina Cardinals?

STATE NEWS:

This is the year for electing North Carolina Association Officers for the next two years. We will get individual ballots at the August club campout. The elected officers will be sworn in at the NC State Fall Campout at Mayberry Campground.

NATIONAL NEWS:

By now everyone should have received their Cadet Membership envelope with forms and instructions on how to implement this program. There is no limit on the number of free membership you can give away. Please read the instructions on how to handle this new program. This will be an opportunity for families to try FCRV at no cost to them.

A number of Cardinals are planning on going to the Regional Campout in Virginia and the National Campvention in Michigan. Still time to get your reservation in for National.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

June 9-13 Southeastern Regional Rock-A-Hock Campground, Lanexa, VA (1-757-494-7495)
(Registration form FCRV.org)

June 18-19 Carolina Cardinal Campout at Crosswinds Campground, Linwood (336-853-4567)
Host: Almonds (Make own Reservations)

July 9-16 50th Annual Family Campers & Rvers Campvention Berrien Springs, Michigan

July 16-18 Carolina Cardinal Campout at Dan Nicholas Park, Salisbury (704-216-7808)
Host: Humphries (Make own Reservations)

August 20-21 Carolina Cardinal Campout at Mayberry Campground, Mount Airy (1-336-789-6199)

Hosts: Hokes (Make own Reservations)

We will be going out Saturday evening for a meal with another club. Libby asked that you contact her if you are planing to go, so she can make reservations.

Sept 17-19 NC State Fall Campvention, Tom Johnson, Marion, NC (Retirees will go in on Sept. 14th)

Register with Yvonne (Do not call the campground).

Host: Central District (Carolina Cardinals)

Sign up for Saturday evening covered dish. Carolina Cardinals will host tea for Teen Queen. Bring something for Friday nights hospitality.

October 16-17 Carolina Cardinal Campout at ?? (Larry still working on it)

Host: Rimer

November 19-21 Carolina Cardinal Campout at Kings Mountain, SC (1-866-345-7275)

Hosts: Culp and Harkeys (Make own Reservations)

Everyone is reminded to make your reservations ASAP.

December 18th Carolina Cardinals Christmas Party at Mt. Pleasant UMC Fellowship Hall

Hosts: Barringers & Shoulders

BIRTHDAYS:

06-11 Jiles Tucker

06-18 Dakota Barringer

06-22 Betsy Harkey

06-30 Ted Bentley

ANNIVERSARIES:

06-04 Bill & Mollie Stirewalt (60)

06-22 Ted & Barbara Bentley

06-25 Jerry & Libby Hoke

The lady was a Southern Baptist who attended services and taught Sunday School every week.

On one Sunday, an out of town acquaintance, a gentleman, was in the pew right behind her. He noted what a fine looking woman she was. While they were taking up the collection, the man leaned forward and said, "Hey, how about you and I having dinner on Tuesday?"

"Why yes, that would be nice," the lady responded.

Well, the gentleman couldn't believe his luck. On Tuesday he picked the lady up and took her to the finest restaurant in that part of South Carolina. When they sat down, the gentleman looked over at her and suggested, "Would you like a cocktail before dinner?" "Oh, no," said our circumspect fine example of southern womanhood, "What ever would I tell my Sunday School class?"

Well, our gentleman was set back a bit, so he didn't say much until after dinner, when he pulled out a pack of cigarettes and asked, "Would you like a smoke?" "Oh my goodness no," said the woman. "I couldn't face my Sunday School class if I did!"

Well, our boy felt pretty low after that, so they left, got in his car and as he was driving the lady home, they passed the local Holiday Inn. He'd been morally rebuffed twice already, so he figured he had nothing to lose so he ventured forth with, "Ahhh ... mmmm how would you like to stop at this motel?"

"Sure, that would be nice," she said in anticipation. The gentleman couldn't believe his ears, and did a fast u-turn right then and there, and drove back to the motel and checked in.

The next morning, after a wild and passionate night of the most incredible love making imaginable, the gentleman awoke first. He looked at the lovely Dixie darling lying there in the bed and with remorse thought, "What the hell have I done?"

He shook her awake and pleaded, "I've got to ask you one thing, what ever are you going to tell your Sunday School class?" The lady said, "The same thing I always tell them," "You don't have to smoke and drink to have a good time."

Thanks to Roy Fisher for this tale.

HAPPY TRAILS